

Please do not allow anyone to weaken the present law concerning phone calls. To do so would wreak havoc on what little personal and family time that we have now. There is no need to weaken this law.